ORANGE SEWER FARM SUBJECT OF SUIT

District Attorney Asks Injunction to Prevent Keeping Alleged Nuisance

COMPLAINT FILED
WITH CLERK TODAY

Document Asserts Odors
Spreading Over West Orange
Damage Community

Today District Attorney L. A. West filed an action asking that an injunction be issued against the City of Orange and N. H. Leonard to prohibit maintaining the Orange sewer farm, situated at West Orange, in a manner offensive to the residents of West Orange. A temporary injunction is petitioned for, with the request that the injunction be made permanent.

The action is begun with The People of the State of California named as plaintiff. It is asserted that the City of Orange maintains a septic tank at West Orange, and that the output of that tank, about 150,000 gallons daily, is spread upon land by Leonard under an agreement with Orange.

It is asserted that "foul, offensive and poisonous odors" arise from the tank and from the sewage-irrigated lands, and spread over the adjoining territory, so that fully seventy-five people suffer from the conditions alleged to exist. The complaint declares that often the odors are so offensive that residents of the neighborhood have to close their doors and windows. It is declared that the foul odors interfere with the agricultural and horticultural pursuits of the people of West Orange in that often the odors are so offensive that men cannot work in the fields, and that it is difficult to hire men to work on lands near the sewer farm.

The complaint alleges that the conditions are such that there is a public nuisance existing.
The affidavit accompanying the complaint is sworn to by H. C. Blanchard of West Orange.

District Attorney West has had the action under contemplation for some time. The matter was brought up before the last grand jury, which recommended that the district attorney proceed against the City of Orange.

M'ADOO CHARGES ALL POLITICS CLAIM

Probe of Allegations Wanted,
But Might Delay the Currency Bill

SECRETARY SAYS NO
DANGER OF PANIC

Bonds Depressed by Bankers
Who Would Defeat Financial Legislation

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Although many Republicans and a few Democrats favor a congressional investigation of Secretary McAdoo's charges that certain New York banks have conspired to reduce the price of government 2 per cent bonds in order to beat the currency bill, it is accepted as certain that none will be ordered.

The majority of the Democratic leaders do not care to take the matter up and the Republicans are in a hopeless minority.

Representative Glass, chairman of the house banking and currency committee, declared today that the committee had its hands full with the administration currency bill and that it did not propose to be diverted from its purpose.

"It is important that the currency bill be completed," he said, "and the committee will not get on the track to investigate anything."

Republican senators continue to regard McAdoo's assertion as nothing but a political move. Senator Weeks of Massachusetts declared that the charge was intended to discredit all who antagonize administration policies. It was calculated, he said, to force members of congress into line for the currency legislation.

Justice to the bankers and people of the country, Mr. Weeks said, required that Mr. McAdoo supply the evidence on which he based his charge.

An investigation by the committee on banking and currency was favored by Senator Bristow. He thought the depreciation in the 2 per cent bonds was due to a natural cause—their anticipated withdrawal from circulation privileges.

Gist of the Statement
The McAdoo statement given to the press said in part:
"The secretary has been asked if it is the purpose of the department to call on the national banks for additional security because the 2 per cent bonds are selling below par.

"The secretary said that while the law conferred that discretionary power on the comptroller of the currency it is not the intention to require the banks to charge off the present nominal depreciation below par of the 2 per cent bonds. So far as the department is concerned the banks may continue to return the 2 per cent bonds at par in the statements they make to the comptroller. This policy will continue unless some material change in conditions should compel the adoption of another course.

"The secretary said that the 2 per cent bonds are worth par, notwithstanding their decline in the New York market—a decline due, not to any impairment of their intrinsic value, but almost wholly to what appears to be a campaign waged with every indication of concerted action on the part of a number of influential New York city banks to cause apprehension and uneasiness about these bonds in order to help them in their efforts to defeat the currency bill.

"In conclusion the secretary said with emphasis that there is not going to be any financial trouble, and that the largest crops now in prospect are going to be moved without difficulty, and that the powers of the department will be exercised in their greatest amplitude for the protection of the business interests of the country."

Trying to Reach Agreement
WASHINGTON, July 30.—Leading insurgents and conservatives on the house banking committee today appealed to Bryan in the hope of reaching a common ground for handling the currency bill. The secretary told all interviewers that he will refuse to participate in any factional fights on the committee, but that he is willing to aid in any way to effect an agreement.

garia, Serbia, Greece and Mon-armistice. Representatives of the combatants have agreed to hold a peace conference here

SHOTGUN EXPLODES AND HARRY SHEARER KILLED

Boy Hunting Rabbits Fatally Hurt When Firearm is Discharged by Jolting
Of Buggy

From the effects of injuries received when a shotgun exploded this morning, Harry Shearer, aged 13, died two hours after the accident. The boy was in a buggy hunting rabbits four miles northwest of Garden Grove when the shotgun was discharged, probably by the jolting of the buggy. The boy's hand may have been over the muzzle, causing the gun to explode, breaking it into three pieces.

Harry Shearer was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer who live on the old William Hill place a mile north of Mesto station, near Garden Grove.
Shearer is guardian of the Hill minors, who live on the place. This morning Harry and two of his cousins, George Hill, aged about 14, and Blanche Hill, aged about 20, rode in an open-top buggy to a point near the Druce ranch near Harper Station, a mile and a half from home. Miss Hill and her brother, who was driving, sat on the seat, and Harry, watching for rabbits, stood up at the back of the buggy, holding on to the back of the seat with one hand and holding the loaded shotgun with the other hand.
The gun was a hammer gun, and it is thought that in a jolt of the buggy the hammer caught on the buggy and was discharged. Some part of the boy's body, possibly his hand, was so close to the muzzle of the gun that the discharge burst the gun. The boy's hand was torn and probably his hand was over the muzzle. His chest was torn with shot, and a part of his skull was blown off.

The boy's cousins picked the boy up from the ground where he had fallen, and drove with him to Dr. Violett's Hospital at Garden Grove, where he died at about 10 o'clock.

The inquest is being held by Coroner Winbiger at Anaheim this afternoon.

The interior of the Santa Ana Vulcanizing Works at 421-423 West Fourth street was partially wrecked this morning at 9:25 when a mold used in vulcanizing automobile tires exploded and sent pieces of iron flying in every direction.

The mold was located next to the north wall about twelve feet from the corner of the building and in a room used for the repairing of automobile tires. Cope and Heanes, the proprietors of the establishment, were both in the room just a minute before the explosion but fortunately had left it when the mold exploded. The mold was a heavy cast iron affair heated by steam and had no more pressure than usual. An electric motor on a stand about four feet directly above the mold was thrown over into the corner, smashing an air tank which had a pressure of about 125 pounds. The mold was blown to pieces, a heavy section weighing probably 75 or 80 pounds passing through the ceiling. The end of a show case in the front part of the building was shattered by the force of the explosion and the plate glass window, ninety feet distant, on the east side and several large panes of glass along the upper part of the store front were completely ruined. Dickey, an employee was cleaning the plate glass window when the broken fragments of glass came raining down on him. He was not injured or even scratched by his unpleasant experience and did not hear the explosion until the window fell out.

The proprietors estimate their damages at between $500 and $1000.

FELIX DIAZ WILL RUN FOR PRESIDENT

Thinks There is No Probability of Intervention—Wilson
Ideal Envoy

SAN DIEGO, July 30.—General Felix Diaz will be a candidate for the presidency of Mexico. He does not expect the support of Huerta. He does not believe that the American government will intervene in Mexico and would deplore such intervention.
He thinks that Ambassador Wilson has made an ideal envoy. The revolution in Mexico is losing ground daily. He made all these assertions to the newspaper correspondents and reporters when at about 9:15 o'clock last night they were permitted to board the American-Hawaiian steamer Virginian.

"My visit to Japan is purely one of courtesy," said Diaz, "extending thanks to that nation for exhibiting at the national exposition. The stories that I was being sent on this mission to get me out of the way when the elections shall take place are absurd.
It was understood by General Huerta when I left Mexico City that I was to be back by the first of October.
The elections are to take place October 26.

"I do not consider there is any probability of intervention. I sincerely trust that such a thing may not be."
"I do not expect General Huerta's support. Under the constitution he is forbidden to accord it to any candidate."

"I think Ambassador Wilson has made an ideal ambassador."

"The last reports we heard just before leaving Salina Cruz were that the government was rapidly restoring order and getting the railroads into shape."

"I will stop at Los Angeles on the way north and there expect to meet my old friend, General Trevino."
"General Huerta will not be a candidate for the presidency, as under the reformed constitution that is for-bidden. De la Barra will not be a candidate, either, as he informed me he would not be in the country when the election takes place. I will be the candidate of the liberal democratic party. What other candidates will be in the field I do not know."

Says Huerta Cannot Run
SAN DIEGO, July 30.—The declaration that Provisional President Huerta will not be a candidate for re-election was made today by Felix Diaz.
"The constitution says no president shall run for re-election until one term has elapsed after his occupancy," Diaz said. He reiterated the state-

Moro Outlaws Use 500 Women and Children as Shields
from American Bullets

TERRIFIC BATTLE
WAGED IN PHILIPPINES

Helpless Victims Were Held Up to Receive Fire of Machine Guns

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The deliberate sacrifice by Moro outlaws of 196 of their women and 340 children by using them as shields from the bullets of the American troops during a terrific battle at Mount Bagsag, Philippines, on June 10 was reported by passengers of the liner Persia, arriving here today.

General Pershing's forces killed 1600 of the Moro outlaws and irreconcilables who were entrenched in the crater of a volcano.

Captain Taylor Nichols, of the Fifty-first company of scouts, and twenty-five other Americans were killed.

John McLean, a civilian government employee, gave a graphic account of the battle, saying every Moro in the battle is believed to have been killed. He said "The scenes were too horrible to relate. As the Americans rushed the crater the Moros seized their women and children and held them over the edge, where the sweeping fire of machine guns cut hundreds to pieces.

"Pershing personally led his men, being among the first to leap into the enemy's last entrenchment when it fell."

WHY HIGH SCHOOL WILL BE CALLED SANTA ANA HIGH SCHOOL DISCUSSED

Principal McMath Explains That Calling
It Anything Else Would be Naming Whole From a Part

In view of the fact that there has been more or less discussion among citizens of Santa Ana over the proper name for the group of buildings which are being erected for high school purposes the Board of Education has asked me to prepare a statement for the local papers setting forth the reasons why the name "Santa Ana High School" is more appropriate than "Polytechnic" or any other descriptive name that has been proposed.

E. H. McMATH, Principal.

There are generally recognized in the United States five general types of high schools, each performing a particular kind of work, which its name is intended to describe.

1. Cultural or General. This type of school gives instruction in languages, literature, history, mathematics and sciences. Its aim is avowedly cultural or college preparatory. This is the school usually found where a community can afford only one course of study in its high school.
2. Manual Training. This group of high schools includes instruction in science, mathematics, modern language, history, English, and shop work. Its aim is to give technical instruction. It seeks to prepare the student to earn his living upon leaving school. Within this class are included Manual Training high schools, Technical high schools, and Polytechnic high schools. The last named is simply a preceding name for either of the two different technical high schools.
3. Household Arts. These schools are sometimes included within schools of the second class. Whether they are maintained as departments of larger high schools or whether they be organized as separate institutions, their aim is to give technical instruction in woman's work, as the manual training or technical schools seek to give technical instruction in man's work.
4. Commercial. Here the aim is to train book-keepers, stenographers, business people. Santa Ana has for some time had a high school of this type, hence no detailed description of such a school should be needed at this time.
5. Agricultural. As the name implies, the purpose of this group of high schools is to give instruction in branches allied to agriculture. This includes work in book-keeping, farm management, soil testing, soil analysis, pomology, agricultural botany, animal husbandry, etc.

Where a city is of sufficient size to require more than one high school to accommodate its pupils of high school age it may well provide schools of varying types and names. Los Angeles is working out on this line to some extent; hence has manual arts, polytechnic, agricultural, etc. But even in many of the largest cities boards of education are coming to the conclusion that high schools should not be specialized but that each individual high school should afford to its pupils the opportunity to study everything that is taught in the city, provided there are enough students desiring the study to organize a class.

In Santa Ana the high school attendance is hardly large enough to justify high schools of these varying types, with their libraries, laboratories, etc. Much can be saved in expense of management each year by offering all these lines of work in one large high school. Consequently there are probably very few in Santa Ana who would demand that the board of education increase the tax rate sufficiently to duplicate buildings, equipment, teaching force, etc.

Since there is to be but one high school, what should it be called? Shall it be known as the Commercial High School? Not more than one-fifth of the students are taking commercial courses. Shall it be called the Agricultural High School? Not more than one-tenth of the outside will enroll in agricultural courses.

Perhaps it should be called the Polytechnic High School. Last spring we secured an expression from about four hundred of the students as to what work they expect to take this fall. Less than 10 per cent expected to take technical work.

Does it not seem reasonable that Santa Ana's splendid new high school should not be named after a part only, and that a very small part, of the work that will be offered? It will offer work in all five lines indicated above. It is a Commercial High School and more. It is larger in aim than a Household Arts High School. Agricultural High School does not describe it; to call it a Polytechnic High School is naming only one-fifth of its features. Santa Ana High School is the only name that does justice to the work which will be offered in Santa Ana's beautiful group of buildings now nearing completion.

It has been urged that the name Polytechnic is a good name with which to advertise the town, and hence the school should be thus named. Surely this argument has been made without due consideration of the facts set forth above. Does it not appeal to the Booster—and in California all are boosters—that better than name the school after one of its departments, call it what it is: The Santa Ana High School, with household arts, commercial, agricultural, college preparatory, and Polytechnic features?

SAYS ORANGE COUNTY WILL JOIN IN FAIR

Seven Southern Counties Are Expected to Put in Exhibit

FRESNO, July 29.—The California State Fair this year will be better and larger than ever before on account of the fact that ten counties that have never exhibited up to this year, and all that ever have, are making arrangements to put on a display that will show their exhibits in the best way possible, was the statement made by J. W. Kavanaugh, superintendent of exhibits of the California State Fair, who was in Fresno en route through the valley in the interests of the fair.

"One of the best features this year," Kavanaugh continued, "will be the exhibit of the seven counties of the southern part of California. They are San Bernardino, Orange, Riverside, San Diego and Imperial counties, and it is their intention to play up the South for all it is worth in order that they might show the visitors how their region has grown in the last few years.

"Their exhibit will be under the supervision of Charles L. Wilson, who is one of the best exhibition managers in the west and who has had charge of all the California exhibits for the state throughout the past during the last fifteen years. It is their intention to have him arrange the exhibit of the seven counties so that it will give the various counties throughout the state, who are worrying over their exhibit for the San Francisco Exposition in 1915, an idea how to plan a model county display.

"His exhibition will serve not only as a model for the 1915 exhibits, but for the future state fairs.

"As San Diego took the first prize last year, she is making plans to take it again this year and to this end she is bending all her efforts. While the seven counties will exhibit as a whole in one respect, each county will have its individual display space. San Diego has secured the same space as she had last year.

"The officials of the fair this year intend to make it a display of the true products and resources of the state, and to this end they are playing up the actual products and not those that the farmers regard as an ideal and of which there are but few. This is especially shown in the stock exhibits. What we want to show is the cow, the horse, the sheep, the hog, etc., that are produced in great numbers throughout the state. While there will be several exhibits of stock that cannot be raised by farmers as a whole, they will be there mainly to show them off as ideals.

"Everywhere that I have gone I have found the people enthusiastic over the fair. All the counties claim that they have the best products in the state, and we are making arrangements for them to show what they produce to people from all over the country who will be in Sacramento during the fair period.

"Another thing that I have noticed is that the chambers of commerce and boards of trades are already making due preparation for the 1915 exhibit. In order to secure the best products for display purposes they are already in the field after specimens. They are doing this for two reasons; one, in case there should be a crop failure in their district that they might have specimens saved from this year; and the other, that they might have two years to select from and thus take the best products selected from both years.

"The fair has been growing from year to year and there is no doubt but what the exhibit this year will be the best that has ever been held."

DRIED FRUIT AT 10 CENTS

Also Dried Fruit at 11 Cents; Writer Thinks Worth
More

Within the last few days some apricot growers have sold their dried fruit at 10 cents a pound, while yesterday others sold at 11 cents. A little publicity in this matter should be of benefit to the growers. No doubt but growers who sold at 10 cents had as good fruit as those who, a day or two later, sold at 11 cents. A fair degree of uniformity in prices has been reached by walnut growers, and can be reached by apricot growers, not not as long as each is trying to do it all by himself.

The growers are entitled this year to a price of 12 to 15 cents per pound. Some will get it, too. As late as July 8, growers in Santa Clara county were offered 12 cents. Orange county has this year produced a fine quality of apricot, and our growers are entitled to as good a price as is paid anywhere.

The favorable growing weather caused the fruit to attain a large size. The fact that most orchards had a light crop made help plentiful, and consequently there was but little fruit that went to waste. These two factors will probably give us the maximum tonnage of 500, of my earlier estimate, which was 400 to 500 tons. Ventura reports a raise in its estimate by 200 tons; instead of 1200 tons it will have 1400 tons. Many growers have found their crop "a little better than expected." While this increase should be taken into account, it is nevertheless not sufficiently large to make much difference.

Latest reports from Santa Clara county do not indicate any increase. On the other hand, in some of the northern counties apricots suffered at the last from the hot wave.

There is no question of a very short apricot crop in the state. There is no doubt about it being shorter than that of 1911. Every kind of fruit crop is short in California, and in the United States.

I will give details later. What I wish to impress upon the growers now is the fact that the total output this year is less than was taken by the export trade last year; that the world last year consumed the 20,000 tons of dried apricots produced in California, and the market is cleaned up. That the price will depend in some measure upon the attitude of the growers, as it did last year. Remember that every grower last year could have had 8 cents a pound, for one of the buyers of one of the large packing firms said in my hearing at the office of the association as early as May: "We expect to pay the growers 8 cents this year." But when our growers jumped at the first offer of 7 cents, they made their own price and made it for practically every other grower, except the few who had the ability and courage to hold for 8 cents. They got it, too, but had to wait for it perhaps two months or more.

I am most decidedly not advocating for growers to hold for an exorbitant or prohibitive price, but I firmly believe that if all the growers were united they could all have 12½ cents, as easily as they can get 10 cents now.

Growers of apricots, and walnuts should not only promptly endorse the act of our present postmaster general in extending zones and increasing weights of parcels, but they should go farther and call for a post-express, so that we may send our products direct to the consumer, thus giving the producer a better price and the consumer a lower price. Our apricots last year, sold by the growers at 7 cents a pound, were retailed to consumers in the East at 25 cents a pound. Mail a marked copy of this article to the congressman or senator of this district with your endorsement.

REFUSES TO LEAVE JAIL

London Suffragette Discovers New Means of Combatting the Hated Law

LONDON, July 29.—A new method of combatting the hated "cat and mouse" act was revealed today by Mrs. Mary Wyan, a suffragette hunger striker. Mrs. Wyan had been confined in Holloway jail, but the physicians had notified the authorities that her persistent abstinence from food had sapped the prisoner's vitality until she was in a dangerous condition. Accordingly she was "released" today.

The prison authorities found themselves up against a new problem when Mrs. Wyan refused to leave. Sent in a box to a nursing hospital, she refused to enter and sat outside until midnight, when she was taken back to Holloway.

CONCRETE ROAD BASE IS IN DEMAND

Supervisors Declare for Concrete Base on County's Highways

SAN BERNARDINO, July 29.—A concrete base—if the cement trust is not too exacting.

Not less than 18 feet of macadam on all principal roads, with a shoulder of gravel increasing the width to 20 or 24 feet.

A rather flat surface, crowned just enough for drainage.

These were some of the specifications that seemed to be in favor of a conference between highway commissioners and supervisors yesterday afternoon.

But where will the roads be built? Oh, that's a question for the future. For nobody has dreamed of building more than 200 miles under the proposed bond issue, and if the commissioners were to tell, they could account for not less than 500 miles that have been requested, and it is even of record that each member of the commission could specify at least 200 miles that ought to be constructed.

ENGLISH PROPHET SAYS WOMEN GET BALLOT NEXT YEAR

LONDON, July 29.—The year 1914 is to be a great year for British suffragettes, the majority of whom will get the vote next spring, according to "Old Moore," England's only licensed prophet. The famous "Almanack" which came out today has, however, little comfort for other folk, for the prophet gloomily predicts disasters galore—moving picture fires, the burning of a government building, mining explosions, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, railway wrecks, bank failures, and other equally distressing events.

England is to have a nation-wide strike, according to "Old Moore," a death in the royal family, and an attempted assassination of a cabinet minister. Turkey is to be sponged off the map of Europe altogether, China will have another bloody rebellion, and there is a big massacre due in Asia Minor, while war between Germany and France will be only narrowly averted. Lovers may take comfort from the prediction that September 8 to 12 will be particularly favorable for affairs of the heart. All proposals made on those days will be accepted and the marriages effected on them will be of the happiest.

Neither Does $18 Spell Witchcraft

When William Murdoch lighted his house with gas in 1792 all of Cornwall, England, gathered about it and marveled at the strange light which came from a pipe. Murdoch was threatened with arrest for practicing witchcraft.

It is a far cry back to 1792, a matter of 120 years, yet today there seems to be some sort of witchcraft or magic which permits you to put in your home a gas range, with an 18-inch oven, and a giant burner, and three smaller burners and one simmerer, all for the small price of $18.00—connections made free.

The reason we can do this is that we do not sell gas ranges to make a profit—our profit is in the gas you will use today, tomorrow and all the tomorrows to come.

SUMMER HOTEL LIFE
You may give the summer traveller nothing better than an eight-by-ten room. The building may be of the flimsiest construction, that would not delay a blaze until the fire engines got there. The food may be no better cooked than at a dollar-a-day boarding house. But if, somehow, you have been able to conciliate the mysterious edicts of fashion, and if your place attracts Society, you can charge your guests $2 a day more than the regular rates of a city hotel giving the same service.

It is hard to find the golden mean between extremes. In the most expensive houses, you go hungry if you don't tip freely. You are snubbed by other guests, not merely if you don't take your fellow sojourners out to automobile rides, but if they happen to learn that you occupy one of the cheaper rooms. On the other hand, in the cheaper houses your neighbors expect you to listen to their personal history after you have known them for ten minutes, and if you don't play bridge and charades every evening, they call you offish.

The difficulty of bringing a lot of strangers together and making off mix with water is no doubt the reason why so many people are having their own summer resort homes, from the millionaire's palace down to the workman's little $100 shack. Still, a tactful landlord with common sense and some knowledge of human nature can do a great deal to make his guests have a good time. Plenty of chance to play games, room for the young folks to dance in, some one to make music, not too much forcing of various circles into each other, are good rules. There are incongruous features in the annual migration, but a whole lot of people like it or capitalists wouldn't keep building hotels.

THERE ARE OTHERS

The following interesting dispatch appeared in the Los Angeles Times of Monday, but called forth no editorial comment from that paper: "MADISON, Wis., July 27.—Among the bills passed by the Wisconsin legislature, which practically completed its work yesterday after the longest session in its history, were the following enactments: "A 'blue sky' law for protection of investors, a minimum wage law for women and minors, a mothers' pension act, a water power control law looking to state ownership, adoption of initiative, referendum and recall amendments to the state constitution. A minimum wage of $10 a month for rural school teachers, abolition of the defense of contributory negligence in the workmen's compensation act, a state commission to supervise boxing contests, a law requiring a certificate of health from prospective brides and grooms, sterilization of feeble minded, epileptics and criminal insane in state and county institutions." The Riverside Press comments as follows: "It will be seen that Wisconsin practically duplicated the program of progressive legislation in California and enacted most of the laws which the reactionaries in this state are now seeking to block by means of the referendum. The Press recently called attention to the fact that a very similar program of constructive legislation had been put through the Ohio legislature, and the action taken in both of those states shows that California is not indulging in 'freaks' or 'fads,' but is embodying in the laws of the state well recognized principles of reform which are being adopted by older and more conservative commonwealths. "You do not see, however, any prominence given to the action of other states along these lines in any such papers as the Times. Because the laws have been passed under Governor Johnson's administration they are denounced in unqualified terms by the Times. California is singled out for attack while nothing whatever is said regarding other states that are adopting legislative programs that are even more advanced than those put through by the California Progressives."

ARE RAILWAYS UNDERPAID FOR CARRYING THE MAIL?

NEW YORK, July 30.—"The railroads maintain that at present they are underpaid by at least $15,000,000 per year. Their complaint is not against the standard of measuring such mail service as is paid for, but that a very large amount of service is demanded for which the nation makes no payment whatever." Such is the purport of a statement today by the railway mail pay committee of the 261 principal American railroads with over 218,000 miles of line. This committee was appointed by the railroads to present their plea for increased compensation to the congressional committee of inquiry, of which former Senator Jonathan E. Bourne of Oregon is chairman. Several hearings have been held by the committee. The Postoffice Department was represented by Second Assistant Postmaster General Stewart, and the Interstate Commerce Commission by Prof. Max O. Lorenz, associate statistician. The railroads have now planned to place their case before the public, and it is in accordance with that plan that the statement is issued today by their committee. The statement follows: "To carry the people's mail quickly, safely and frequently is a social obligation which the railroads freely concede. It is a service voluntarily performed, for no law compels a railroad company to carry mails unless it contracts to do so. The courts hold, however, that if the railroads so contract, they must do so on terms named by the government. "Though surrounded by these anomalous conditions, the railroads have without stint placed their resources at the disposal of the nation to develop the transportation of mails to the highest possible state of efficiency. This service has been paid for at a price fixed by the government, a price from which the carriers have had no appeal. "The United States government, in 1912, paid the railroads $51,697,374.49 for carrying mail. This was about 20.95 per cent of all postal revenues. In 1901 the railroads had received 34 per cent of the postal revenue. In the same year, 1901, the Joint Committee to Investigate the Postal Service, of which Senator Wolcott was chairman, reported to Congress its opinion that the prices now paid to the railroads for the transportation of the mails are not excessive." Yet in 1907 the Postmaster General, by administrative order, reduced railway mail pay by nearly $5,000,000—about ten per cent—and Congress cut off about two per cent more by reductions in rates of pay for carrying mail and for the use of postal cars. "The railroads maintain that at present they are underpaid by at least $15,000,000 per year. It is their belief that a fair adjustment would require that the government should pay the railroads for all services which they render."

THINK TWICE BEFORE YOU CONDEMN THE REFERENDUM

BY FRANCIS J. HENEY.
Petitions for a referendum have been filed against four only of the laws which were enacted by the recent legislature. In the order of their importance these laws are the Water Commission Bill, the "Blue Sky" Bill, the Red Light Abatement Bill and the Non-sale of Ducks Bill. It required in round numbers 20,000 signatures to secure a referendum upon each of these bills. Unless the Governor calls a special election for the purpose, each of these four measures will be placed upon the ballot at the next general election in November, 1914. The filing of the petitions for a referendum with the proper number of signatures upon each prevents a law from going into effect and suspends its operation until the people shall have voted upon and adopted it. Otherwise, a law goes into effect sixty days after the governor has signed it, unless a different period of time is specified by the legislature in the law itself. Some of the people who are enthusiastically in favor of having the aforesaid laws go into effect immediately are inclined to complain about the existence of the referendum. Occasionally one of them insists that the referendum ought to be abolished entirely, but more often you hear some of them insisting that its use ought to be curtailed by increasing the number of signatures which should be required to secure a referendum on any bill, and by restrictive conditions in regard to the method of procuring signatures upon a petition for a referendum, etc., etc. These impatient people forget that before the initiative and referendum came into existence in this state it had been impossible for a period of more than forty years to induce any legislature to enact laws of this kind. It is because the people now have it in their power to secure, through initiative petitions, any kind of legislation that they desire that our legislators have become responsive to public opinion and that such laws can be enacted at all. Moreover, it is because the people now have it in their power to veto by their votes at an election, through the use of the referendum, any law enacted by the legislature which they do not like, that our legislators have ceased to enact laws which are contrary to the best interests of a majority of the people or, at least, which are obviously so. It is true that the referendum may be abused by being used by special interests to prevent a good law from going into effect immediately. It must be kept in mind, however, that

JAPAN PREPARING ANOTHER PROTEST

WASHINGTON, July 30.—That the Japan controversy is still far from settlement was indicated today when it was learned that the government of Japan has informally notified Secretary of State Bryan that it intends to submit another note in reply to the one last received from the United States. It has been the hope of the administration that Japan would have nothing further to say on the subject following receipt by her of the last note from Mr. Bryan. It was hoped that the Japanese would see that the United States considered that the case had been settled by its argumentative demonstrations that the treaty has not been violated by the California alien land law, and that no discrimination against Japan is intended by the Washington government. It is now apparent, however, that Japan is not going to rest content with the reiterated statement upon the part of the United States that there is no cause for complaint upon her part. It is now well understood here that the United States government has nothing to offer Japan in the way of reparations for the California alien land law and that, up to the present, no concessions are contemplated.

GIRL ALLEGED TO BE WHOLESOME MURDERESS

MADRID, July 30.—One of the most sensational murder trials in the history of Madrid was expected when Senora Maria Louisa Sanchez and her father, a captain in the army, went to trial here today for the murder of a wealthy young man named Julon. The young man had courted the girl for several months and the date for the wedding had been set when he mysteriously disappeared. He had a large sum of money on his person at the time he was found in his fiancée's name as his wedding gift. Sanchez and his daughter, who is in the twenties, disappeared shortly after a search of their residence resulted in the discovery of human bones. The father and daughter were arrested in a village in the north of Spain. The girl, the police declare, has turned state's evidence and admitted that according to plans laid by her father she got her lover to bring a large sum of money to the house and while he sat with his arms about her, her father crept up behind him and knocked him unconscious. She said she and her father killed him, dismembered the body and buried it in the garden. The bones found by the police had been discovered under the cellar floor. Saying nothing they went to the spot in the garden where the girl said Julon's body was hidden, and there they found it. Further investigation developed stories of the strange disappearance of other young men of wealth after a short courtship of the girl. The police say she has promised to confess everything at the trial which opened today.

BRYAN IS GUEST AT VERY "WET" DINNER

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Grape juice diplomacy vanished at the dinner given by Senor J. E. Lefevre, chargé d'affaires at the Panama legation, last night, in honor of Richard L. Metcalf, a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission, at which Secretary of State Bryan was present. The dinner was distinguished by the choice collection of wines and other liquids served.

PLANS FLYING MACHINE FIRE DEPARTMENT

BOSTON, Mass., July 30.—A flying machine fire department for Salem was today predicted by Mayor John F. Hurley. Fire engines, hook and ladders, hose wagons and aerial water towers of the future will go through the air on the wings of aeroplanes instead of using the city streets, according to Hurley's ideas.

CINCINNATI TWIRLER LANDS IN HOSPITAL

CINCINNATI, July 30.—Following a collision of his motor cycle and a suburban car this morning, Pitcher Rube Benton, Cincinnati's star southpaw, is unconscious in a hospital with concussion of the brain and internal injuries and a broken jaw.

WASHINGTON READY FOR SUFFRAGETTES

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Plans were completed today by suffrage leaders and city officials for what is expected to be the greatest demonstration ever seen in the capital city. The chief event will be the parade and pageant in which wives of senators and representatives in the national legislature and other prominent women will take part. The line of march will be from the capitol building, west on Pennsylvania avenue and past the White House. The latter route is the same attempted during the parade on March 3 last, when hoodlums insulted the fair marchers without hindrance by the police, and for a time broke up the parade. Admitting that he has learned his lesson Major and Superintendent Richard Sylvester, declared today that he will have all the streets roped off—something he failed to do on March 3—and that extra details of police will be stationed along the line of march.

SOCIETY

Pleasant Outings Planned

C. S. Crookshank yesterday took Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Miss Marie Martin, Eleanor and Ronald Crookshank to East Newport, settling them for a month's rest and change at the seashore. Mr. Crookshank will leave tomorrow in company with his friend, George S. Briggs, for a two months hunting trip through Alaska.

Miss Martin will be at East Newport only until August 15th, when she plans to join a party of young women going from here to Seven Oaks for a fortnight's outing in the mountains. Others in the party will be Misses Pauline Parsons, Ava Wells, Hutoqua Hessler, and Margaret Wakeham.

Elks at Balboa Today

The local Elks are planning and expecting great things at their entertainment at Balboa this afternoon and evening. Their plans were to leave the Elks' Hall this afternoon at 2 o'clock and go by automobile to Balboa, where the lodge had rented all the amusements. The afternoon is to be spent in boat rides on the bay or in doing anything that the crowd wishes to do. At 7 o'clock a fish dinner will be served at the hotel at Corona del Mar. This evening the company will enjoy itself with music and dancing.

The trip today has been planned especially for the ladies. Each Elks has been given the privilege of inviting as many ladies as he chooses, and it is estimated that about 150 will attend.

Dinner in Honor of Nieces

Dr. and Mrs. Medlock entertained last evening with a delightful four-course family dinner in honor of their nieces, the Misses Inga and Ursula Adams, of Berkeley, California. The affair was in reality a farewell dinner for the Misses Adams as they leave today for their home after spending the greater part of the summer at the home of Dr. Medlock. While in the city the Misses Adams have met many of the Santa Ana people and have won many friends here who will be sorry to hear of their departure.

Covers at the dinner last night were laid for the following: Mrs. M. F. Heathman, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Custlin, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cole, the honorees, the Misses Adams, and the host and hostess, Dr. and Mrs. Medlock.

Christian Endeavor Officers Meet

The officers of the various Christian Endeavor societies in the county met last night at the Christian church to discuss plans and appoint committees to arrange for the coming county convention which is to be held in the Anaheim Presbyterian church on August 4, 5 and 6. A good number of the officers attended.

Entertained Choir

One of the most original and most enjoyable social affairs of the season was that given last evening in honor of the choir of the United Presbyterian Church by Miss Mary Ely and Miss Fannie Smart at the home of Miss Smart on North Main street. The parlors and dining room were made into real mountain hovers by decorations of pine boughs, pine cones, acorns and oak leaves brought to Santa Ana by Miss Ely and Miss Smart when they returned from their recent vacation spent at Keen's Camp. The games played during the evening were suggestive of their trip, being the same games that were played by the guests at the camp on July 4.

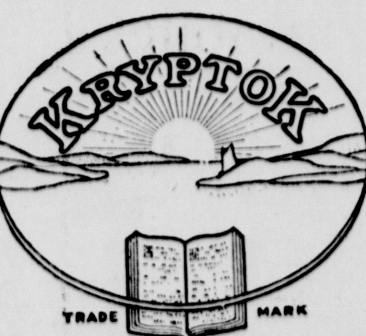

The same decorative scheme that prevailed in the parlors was carried out on the dining table which had for a centerpiece a small tripod with the black kettle suspended from it and the glowing embers underneath. The ices served as refreshments were frozen in the form of logs. The cakes were shaped like acorns and the mints were molded in the form of oak leaves.

ARE PREPARING FOR OCTOBER FESTIVAL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Sixteen nations are helping California prepare for the Portola Festival, the big celebration to be held in San Francisco on October 22 to 25 next, commemorating the 400th anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific ocean by Vasco Nunez de Balboa. The people of every part of the globe will help pay tribute to Balboa and to Don Gaspar de Portola, discoverer of the Bay of San Francisco and California's first governor.

These sixteen countries have given endorsement and promised co-operation with the Portola Festival Committee in San Francisco. It was announced today that the consuls have accepted places on the special international committee, which will plan greater international participation than was at first included in the fiesta plans, and will see to it that foreign residents of the West have a big share in the fun.

LONG BEACH BAND TO LEAD CULT OF SPLIT TROUSERS

LONG BEACH, July 30.—This city is to have the distinction of possessing the first split-trousered band in the world. It was learned yesterday that the band members have been instructed to take their white duck trousers to a local tailor for alteration. The trousers are to be slashed from just below the knee to the ankle, the split to be held together by a fancy string and bow arrangement. Five buttons will ornament one flap of the trouser leg.

Giddy and dazzling socks will be worn with the split trousers. Local admirers of the Municipal Band believe that when the thirty members, garbed in their split trousers and glowing hose, march down the street to a lively tune, their trousers flapping in the wind like shutters in the midst of a gale, the effect will be so novel and startling that bakers will forget their loaves of bread to rush to the door, and merchants will suspend all business until the band disappears from sight.

HARRIMAN'S DAUGHTER LOSES $75,000 JEWELS

NEW YORK, July 30.—A pearl necklace valued at $60,000, and other jewelry bringing the total up to at least $75,000, were stolen from Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey, daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, at her summer home at Narragansett Pier some time last Saturday night or Sunday. The theft was the work of persons who had acquaintance with the place where Mrs. Rumsey kept her jewels, for there was no rummaging for them.

The stolen articles comprised five pieces. The pearl necklace was a wedding gift to Mrs. Rumsey from her mother, the widow of the railroad man. The other pieces, with the exception of one large ruby, also the gift of Mrs. Harriman, were given to Mrs. Rumsey, then Miss Mary Harriman, by E. H. Harriman, at different times before his demise.

Misses' and Ladies' Tailored Suits at $5.00 each. These suits sold by us from $15.00 to $20.00. Only about 20 in the lot, at the ridiculous price of $5.00. Just come and see. We are bound to make room for the new fall goods. Our loss is your gain. These suits will not last long at this price. So come early at Gilbert's. Take elevator to suit department.

FORMER MRS. FIELD FIGHTS INCOME TAX

LONDON, July 30.—The question whether money owned by an American is subject to the income tax again cropped up yesterday, when Mrs. Malvina Drummond, who was the widow of Marshall Field, Jr., in the high court appealed against an assessment of money she had received from the trustees of the late Marshall Field, Sr., for the education of his grandchildren. Decision was reserved.

COUNTY SEALER AND AUTO TRY TO SCALE BIG TELEPHONE POLE

City Trustee George McPhee has bought a new Ford automobile and for two or three days he has been learning to drive it. He has acquired the machine so that he may have some way in which to get around over the county when his work as county sealer of weights and measures commences in about two weeks. Yesterday McPhee was out on Greenleaf street when he espied a telephone pole. Either he wanted to take the measure of the pole or scale it or he thought it would be a mighty poor automobile driver who could not hit something while learning—anyhow, he ups and bumps that telephone pole with his nifty new Ford. The Ford was weighed in the balance and its measure was not found wanting. The sealer of weights and measures and the Ford went through the ordeal with flying colors, but the telephone pole lost a hunk as big as a ham bone.

STRIKING MINERS FAVOR CONFERENCE

CALUMET, Mich., July 30.—A conference in Lansing between five representatives of the copper mine operators and their striking employees was proposed today in telegrams to Governor Ferris. The strikers reported in favor of the plan. A reply from the operators is expected before night.

Street fights were numerous last night. Two militiamen were arrested today for failure to do duty against the strikers.

WILL GIVE DEGREES IN GRAND CANYON

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 30.—The Grand Canyon of Arizona will become a Masonic Temple September 8 and 9. On those days the Arizona lodge No. 2, F. and A. M., of Phoenix, will use the canyon for conferring Masonic degrees on candidates of this jurisdiction.

Grand Master Lefroy Middleton of Globe granted special dispensation yesterday for the event. Masons throughout the United States had expressed a desire to be present if the permission was granted.

It has been planned to enact the apprentice degree at the bottom of the canyon at the foot of Bright Angel trail, the fellowship craft degree on the plateau half way up the trail, and the master's degree at Point Hopi, on the rim of the canyon.

WHARF FISHING WON'T COST DOLLAR

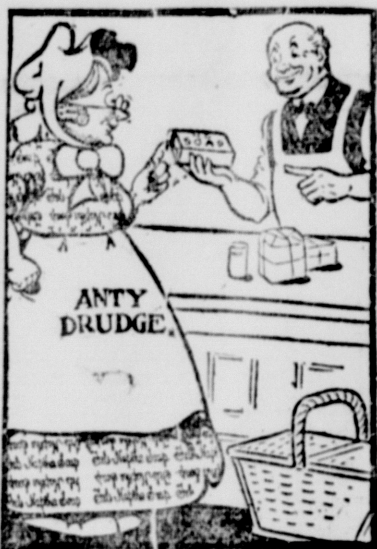

Commission Tells Robinson that the Law Will Not be Enforced Against All

County Game Warden W. K. Robinson came back today from a visit to the State Fish & Game Commission office in Los Angeles with a message to the effect that the commission believes the referendum measure, proposing to kill off the bill that provides that it will be unlawful to fish for any game fish unless the fisherman has first secured a state license, ought not to prosper.

Robinson was told at the office that the commission does not expect to enforce the law against those who fish outside the surf-line. That is, those who fish from wharves will not be expected to pay for a license, but those who cast their lines into the sea from sandy shore or rocky promontory are expected to take out a license.

The commission takes the view that it has no extra money to spend in protecting game fish along the sea shore and that those who fish along the shore ought to pay in enough money through licenses to give the necessary protection.

By what authority the commission takes the stand that the law will not

Grocer—"There's your butter, tea and baking powder. Now, as to soap, I want you to try this instead of Fels-Naptha. It's said to be the best in the market."

Anty Drudge—"Mr. Grocer, unload this basket. I don't know but what you've given me a fraud butter or tea or a hurtful baking powder. But I do know you are trying to fool me into buying an imitation of Fels-Naptha Soap. After this I'll go where I can trust the grocer to give me what I ask for."

Fels-Naptha Soap does the work of loosening dirt from clothes in cool or lukewarm water instead of leaving it for you to do on the washboard. With Fels-Naptha there's no backache, no long bending over the washtub.

Your clothes will wear twice as long, because boiling or scalding softens the fiber and rots the clothes. And they'll be whiter and cleaner.

Use Fels-Naptha Soap according to the simple directions on the red and green wrapper.

be enforced against those who fish on wharves outside the surf-line is a question that has been brought up by sportsmen interested in defeating the measure. The measure that was passed and signed by the governor makes no such distinction for the law says that every person over 18 years of age "who takes, catches or kills any game fish for any purpose other than for profit," without a license will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The local delegates of the Fish & Game Protective Association favored requiring a license of fishermen, but the plan favored was to have one license cover both hunting and fishing. If the new law goes into effect, after Jan. 1, 1914, the man who hunts must have a $1 license. If he fishes he must also have a $1 fishing license. A referendum petition is at Hill & Walker's store, and a good many signatures have been secured to it.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The local potato market is firm, and several of the produce men predicted yesterday that there will be a raise in prices within a short time. This year's crop was up to the average in all sections of the state, according to reports, but it is expected that much of the supply to be used in Los Angeles and immediate vicinity will be required to be shipped from the North. The Northern Burbank potatoes are now being quoted at $1.45 and $1.50 and the local Burbanks at $1.30 and $1.35.

The jobbers' price on fresh ranch eggs, came down, climbed up to 31 cents yesterday. This price was reached after a series of small sales on the Produce Exchange at a much lower figure. The first sale was made at 27 cents, the next at 25 1/2 cents. Then the same member purchased three lots at 28, 29 and 30 cents, the last sale fixing the quotation for the day.

There were few changes in prices on fruit and vegetables yesterday. Malaga grapes are being received in large quantities, and are priced at 4 1/2 and 5 cents. A few black grapes and Thompson seedless have reached the local market.

Plums are still coming in in large quantities. Nectarines, peaches and pears are the principal fruits sold, aside from plums of the various varieties. A large quantity of green mango and egg plums were on the market yesterday, selling at 2 1/2 cents per pound.

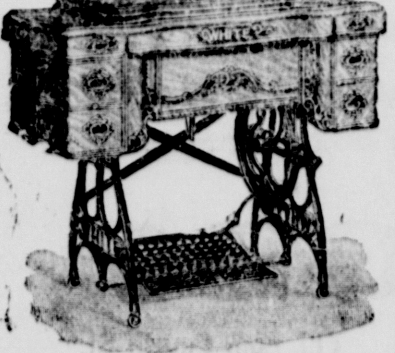

The watermelon market is growing somewhat firmer than it has been during the past two weeks. Ten lots of local melons are being disposed of at an average price of $20, while smaller quantities sell at about $12.50 per hundred.

The market is now fairly well stocked with new apples, and large shipments are being received from the north daily.

NO MONEY IS APPROPRIATED

The Supervisors Disapprove Suggestion for Exhibit at Sacramento

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

ROBERT POOR PAYS A FINE

Pleads Guilty to Having Disturbed Peace at Night of Collision of Rigs

This morning Robert Poor of Placentia came into Justice Cox's court and contritely changed a plea of not guilty to a plea of guilty, and contritely paid the justice a fine of $10. Poor was one of the three young men who were driving buggies rapidly on South Main street Sunday evening. After one of the buggies smashed into Officer Lacy's buggy, Poor became abusive and loud-mouthed, and Lacy arrested him for disturbing the peace.

Louis Nailey and Samuel Waters, who were arrested for reckless driving, told Officer Lacy today that they would pay for whatever damage was done Lacy's buggy.

Moral Degeneracy

Charles Pocock, 1040, told a story of degeneracy the like of which Justice Cox had never before heard in his court. The life that Pocock has lived has undoubtedly affected his brain.

Is Sent to Jail

John Baptiste of Delat was found guilty of disturbing the peace, and was sent to jail for ten days.

Sixty Gallons of It

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mary Green, the feminine alias for John Doe, of Smeltzer on a charge of having sold intoxicating liquor in violation of the county ordinance. The woman is an Italian. The witness who bought liquor from her state that there was sixty gallons of "Dago red" in the place. The sale complained of was made the middle of the month.

IN MUDDLE OVER AUTOMOBILE TAX

State Offices in Doubt as to Which Handles it Under New Law

SACRAMENTO, July 30.—Unable to determine whether the new automobile license tax law, part of which becomes operative August 10, contemplates the removal on that date of the motor vehicle department from the secretary of state's office to that of the state engineer, the heads of the two offices have applied to Attorney General Webb's office for an interpretation of the act.

Each office has been proceeding on the theory that the other would handle the business until January 1, 1914, when the new tax becomes effective. In the state engineer's office no preparations have been made to install the department. In the secretary of state's office until yesterday it was thought the $10,000 appropriations provided in the bill to re-establish the department in the state engineer's office, contemplated the removal of the department August 10.

Now, however, someone has come along with a construction of the law to the effect that if the department is removed from the secretary of state's office August 10, the department of engineering must proceed to levy the annual tax on automobiles and collect the proportion of the yearly rate due between August and December. On the other hand the secretary of state has been deprived of his appropriation to maintain the department.

Webb has been asked to render an opinion as soon as possible.

If the people are unable to register new motor vehicles between August 10 and January 1, the state will lose approximately $9000 a month in revenue.

CLAIM MILITIA FIRED ON STRIKERS

CALUMET, Mich., July 30.—The first clash between militiamen and strikers was reported today, when it was alleged that the troops had fired on a body of strikers at Isle Royale, wounding two. Later the militia officers denied that the strikers had been fired on, claiming that the militiamen fired in the air to frighten the men, and succeeded. A search for the reported wounded strikers failed to bring results, although the strikers still maintain that two of their number were seriously wounded.

About twelve years ago she came to Orange to live with her daughter. Few people, if any, now living lived within the territory now Orange county as long as did this woman.

LOS ANGELES, July 30.—E. Rogers Stearns, vice president of the Pacific Kiesel Kar branch at Tenth and Olive streets, president of the Automobile Dealers' Association, and one of the best known and most popular automobile men in Southern California, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon when the automobile he was driving on the road to San Diego skidded near Encinitas and struck a tree. The accident occurred about 4:30 o'clock on a level stretch of road. Mr. Stearns was driving when the car struck a soft stretch in the road and swerved. Before it could be checked it collided with a tree, crushing Mr. Stearns and throwing out Mr. Barr. They were picked up and physicians were summoned, but they could do nothing for Mr. Stearns and he succumbed three hours afterward.

FOOL AND HIS MONEY TAKING USUAL COURSE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 30.—Charles G. Gates, son of the late John A. Gates, nearly caused the collapse of a negro waiter in a hotel cafe here last night. Mr. Gates, who recently figured in another cafe episode, was in the place with some friends. His dinner check amounted to almost $100, it is said. Gates called the waiter to him, pulled out a roll of $100 bills, slipped off the top one, and said: "Here, boy, keep the change." "Why, Mistah Gates, did you all know that was a $1000 bill?" gasped the astonished negro. "Yes, sure," said Gates, "that's all right, just keep the change." Gates then left. The waiter turned the $900 over to the manager of the cafe, who mailed Mr. Gates a check for the amount.

THE CASE IS DISMISSED

Word from Commission is that Withdrawal Brought Entry of Dismissal

ORANGE, July 30.—The protest against the long curve off North Main street on to the P. E. right-of-way to Orange has been closed so far as the State Railroad Commission is concerned. A wire was received by L. M. Hartwick last night from the commission stating that the case has been dismissed upon the receipt of the letter of the Associated Chambers of Commerce withdrawing its objection to the long curve.

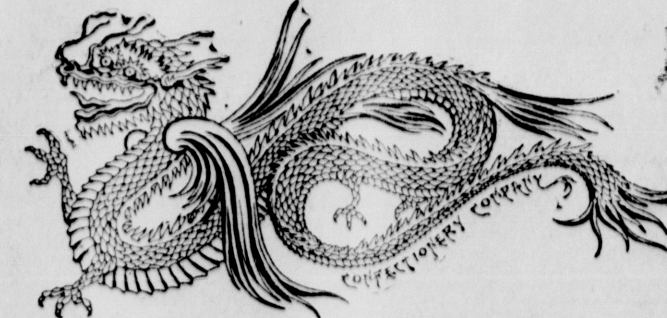

This is taken as good news here, for it is thought that it will now be but a short time until the commission grants the P. E. the necessary permit to begin building the electric extension to Orange, and the P. E. will begin to build as quickly as possible.
